

Grant Writing and Management

Event Synopsis

Want to apply for a grant but do not know how to start? This Grant Writing and Management Seminar will give participants guidance in preparing a good grant proposal so as to improve your chances of grant application success! Speakers will be sharing on how to write to distinguish your grant proposals from the rest of the applications. Tips on post-award grant management will also be discussed.

At the end of the seminar, participants should be able to:

- Be familiar with the respective funding opportunities available;
- Identify the good components of a good grant proposal;
- Appreciate the overview of a grant review process;
- Perform Systemic Literature Review;
- Maximize their grant;
- Effectively manage their grants;
- Protect their research findings; and
- Know about the various funding support available in National Healthcare Group.
